

Open Networked Learning, ONL181

Certificate

This is to certify that

Katarzyna Sutryk

has been a co-facilitator on the course Open Networked Learning (ONL181) held 17 September – 2 December 2018

<https://opennetworkedlearning.wordpress.com>

The course comprised the following topics:

Connecting – online participation and digital literacies

Open learning – sharing and openness

Learning in communities – networked collaborative learning

Design for online and blended learning

Lessons learnt – future practice

Role

Co-facilitators have a vital role in the course, being part of the course team, facilitating PBL groups, using their experience in the field to provide feedback to participants, suggest methods and tools as well as helping to organise and facilitate online group meetings. Co-facilitators are former course participants and, as such, offer an important extra dimension to the course. The role usually demands approximately 25 hours commitment.
